

July 8, 1941.

Mr. Art Carter,
2711 Georgia Ave., N. W.,
Washington, D. C.
Apt. 23.

Dear Art:

I know you have been wondering what has happened to me, but my schedule for that week has been quite messed up. I have just about got it straightened out. To begin with we were scheduled to play the Elites at Baltimore Thursday, the 17th, they sent me word through Gottlieb they could not have the Park for the 17th and would have to play the game the 18th, this meant I had to look for a spot for the 17th. We had planned to go South with the Phila Stars Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of that week. I talked to Gottlieb on the phone last night and he told me you have been in touch with Greene and he has agreed to play the Eagles on Saturday, the 19th in the spot you wanted to put us, I think it is the same place we played the exhibition game before, this is all right with me. This means I do not want a game for the 18th, as I have to play the Elites in Baltimore.

I do hope you have not been put to any inconvenience for arranging for this date, it may be if we do any good this Saturday, we might be able to do some business with the teams from now on.

I may come to Baltimore for the game Sunday, the 13th. Will look to see you then. Please send me word right away what you have planned for the Eagles and Elites for the 19th.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ